In 1880, after twenty years of Republican rule, the Secretary of the Treasury pays $85,000,000 of debt contracted by a war brought on by a solid Democratic South, which now wants power again so as to stop the waving of that bloody shirt the wearing of which is Hancock's chief glory and his whole available stock as a candidate for the Presidency.

Republican rule, the balance of trade was over $162,000,000 in favor of this country. In 1880, aftertwenty years of Democratic rule and teaching, there was a very serious question whether we had any Nation. And the old public functionary in the White House, whose chief adviser was Jere. Black, announced that there was was Jere. Black, announced that there was "no power in the government to coerce the State," leaving the inference that Jeff.
Davis and Alec Stephens could send the country to the demnition bow-wows for all he could do to preventit. After twenty years of Republican rule there is no doubt that we have a country, and Alec Stephens and Jere. Black would give all they are worth to have the people forget that they ever questioned it.
The kind of ruin which five successive Republican administrations have inflicted upon the country is just a little striking in view of the figures, and the people like it and call for more of the same sort, and are bound to have it, too.

Shortly before six o'clock the convention adjourned, and, headed by a band, the delegates marched to the Union Depot, where a train was in waiting to baul them out to the resort. After tripping the hight fantastic for about half an hour the party filed into the banquet hall and discussed a substantial repast. The tables were then cleared and an impromptu meeting was organized. T. A. Armstrong, of the Labor Tribune, being called to the chair. In accepting the honor conferred Mr. Armstrong said that he had been connected with labor organizations in Allegheny county for the past fifteen years, and had implicit faith in the beneficial influence exercised by them on all classes of workers. He was pleased to note the rapid growth and success of the Amalgamated Association, which, though only in its infancy, wielded a power never before acquired by a similar organization. In passing the speaker touched upon the tariff question, holding that in these times the tariff tinkers should remember that labor should be protected as well as capital.
